Quote for the Week

“The old year, with its burden of record, is fast passing away. The new year, with all its possibilities, will soon be ushered in. What advancement have we made in the knowledge of Christ during the past year? Are we prepared to show, more decidedly than ever before, that we are on the Lord's side? At this time, when the nations of the world are wavering between infidelity and idolatry, are we prepared to stand as faithful ambassadors for Christ? Shall we not, at the beginning of this new year, give ourselves and all we have to God? Shall we not listen to His voice, which calls us to a renewed contest, to a more thorough consecration of ourselves and our intrusted capabilities to His service?” — Ellen G. White — Signs of the Times, January 2, 1901

Soften My Heart

Soften my heart, Lord, soften my heart;
From all indifference set me apart.
To feel Your compassion, to weep with Your tears;
Come soften my heart, O Lord, soften my heart.
